Man Under Murder Charge in Utah Celebrates His Release in Denver.

Oreste Pagnini, better known in Utah as Robert L. King, was the central figure in a banquet given in Denver Sunday night to celebrate his release from by Judge Thomas D. Lewis in the the sentence of death passed on him in Utah. Pagnini is the man who was necused with James Lynch, whose death sentence was recently commuted, of having killed Godfrey Prowse in the Sheep Ranch gambling house. He was been Ranch gambling house. He was convicted and sentenced to death, but was released because the supreme court granted him a new trial and the prose-

Pagnini says he is the son of Fran-Mont Cenis tunnel, which connects Italy and France. The elder Pagnini was at one time postmaster general of Italy. Pagnini has a brother who is a captain of artillery in the Italian army, and he says he has a sister, Marguerite, who is the only woman in the vatican. She is a harp soloist in the choir of the Sistine chapel

He came to America in 1882, and was known as the Utah State band.
